DEDICATION

We dedicate the 1986 Sagitta with sincere gratitude to Mrs. Eileen Kinney, our devoted yearbook advisor. Mrs. Kinney has always done more than her share, as a teacher and as an advisor. For the past five years, she has provided the guidance, support and wisdom needed to create the ever successful Sagitta.
We recognize her commitment to the Suffield High School Community and thank her with this dedication.

APPRECIATION

We, the class of 1986, wish to convey our deepest appreciation to our class advisors, Mr. James Gregor and Mr. Lawrence Katulka. They have supported us as a class throughout the years with much love, time, and effort. They have shared with us our joys and sorrows, and guided us when we were in need of guidance. They are more than just advisors . . . they are our friends. We are now returning the love given to us by "K" and "J. G." through this small tribute.

We met when we were young and impressionable, ready to begin the transition from adolescence to adulthood.

Like saplings acquiring maturity,
we were ready to enter the forest of life.

We set goals and sprang forward into a period of growth and new found maturity.

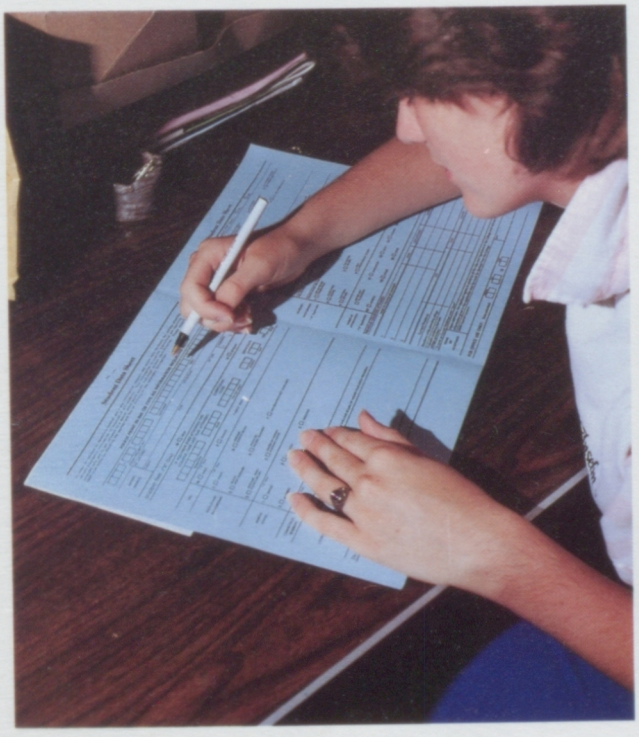

Realizing these goals, we slowly grew to our potential,
and our colors became brighter and stronger.

As we grew, we reached out and found something our parents could not give us: our friends.

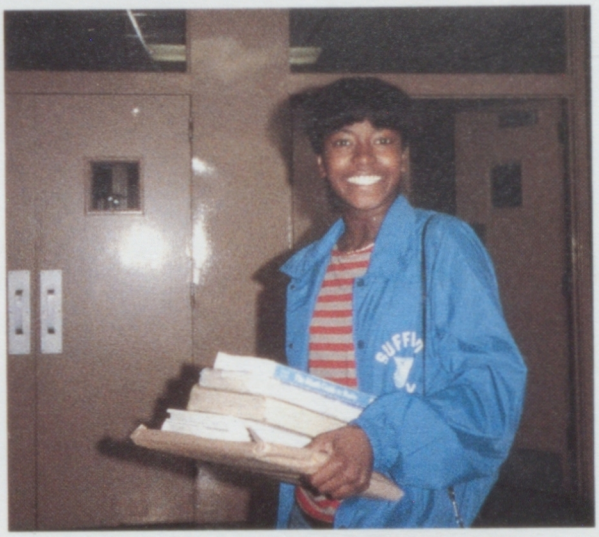

Now, as we are discovering our place in life and are flourishing in our own soil . . .

. . . we are uprooted and presented once again with a new challenge.

Using the knowledge with which we became our own individual blossoms, we set out with a sense of experience, ready for the challenge of finding a new place in life.

SUFFIELD TEACHER OF THE YEAR

The Sagitta Staff wishes to recognize our 1986 Teacher of the Year, Mr. Dennis J. Picard. His dedication to teaching and outstanding directing ability have encouraged the development of students both on an academic and personal level. "Pic" has given us the gifts of caring and support. He has brought us smiles in the warmth of spring and comfort in the face of need. With this recognition we also take a moment to ponder all that he has generously given. With warmest wishes for future times, we offer not only our thanks but our love as well.

I'm Glenda, the good witch of the South!

These kids will never understand Thoreau.

Let me tell you about the baby.

Thank God you came!

The latest additions to my monkey collection.

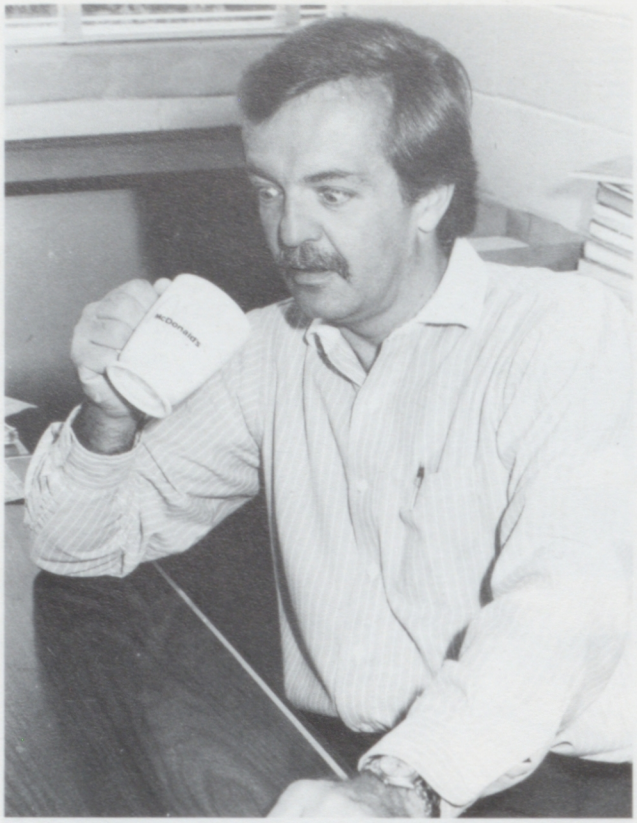

My husband is doing what??

A bea in the jungle.

And they think it's a camera . . . full power to phasers, Mr. Spock!

How McGrous!

Ah, that was funny, but let's get back to Algebra!

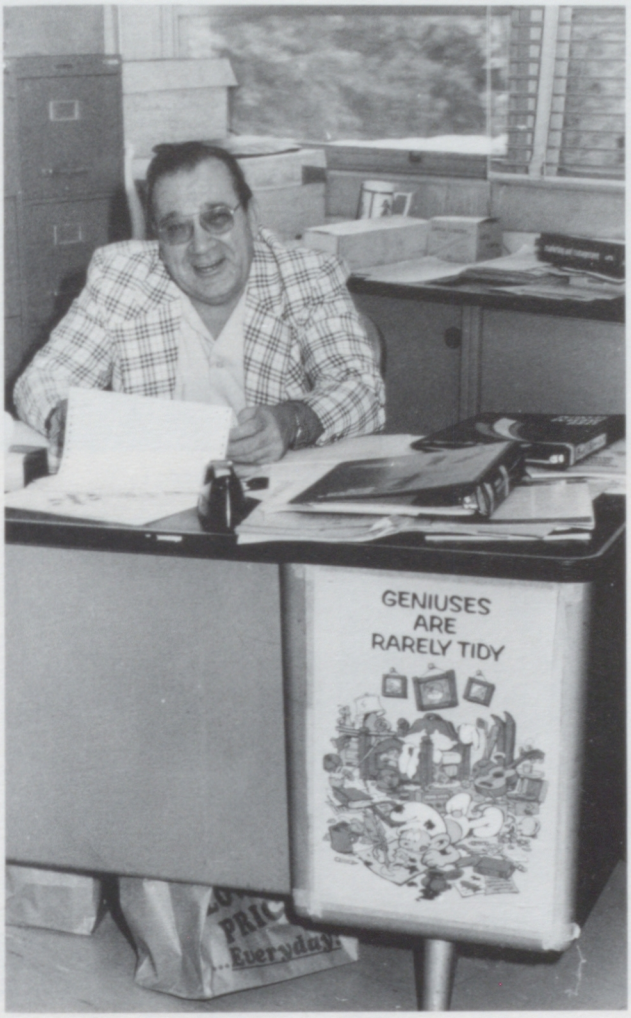

Look, Ma — no cavities!

I live for these newsletters.

Can we talk?!

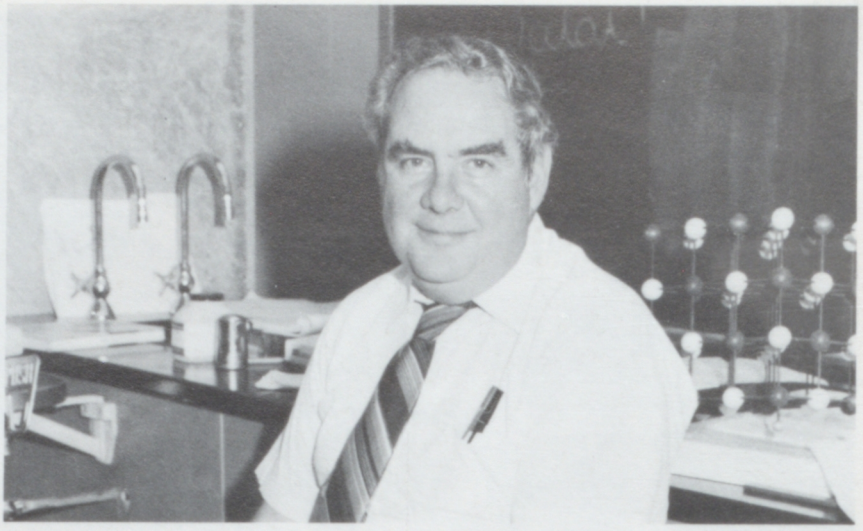

Can you spell computer?

You used my computer to break into the Pentagon?

Gonna sing you a little song now . . .

Okay, this looks like a good breaking off point.

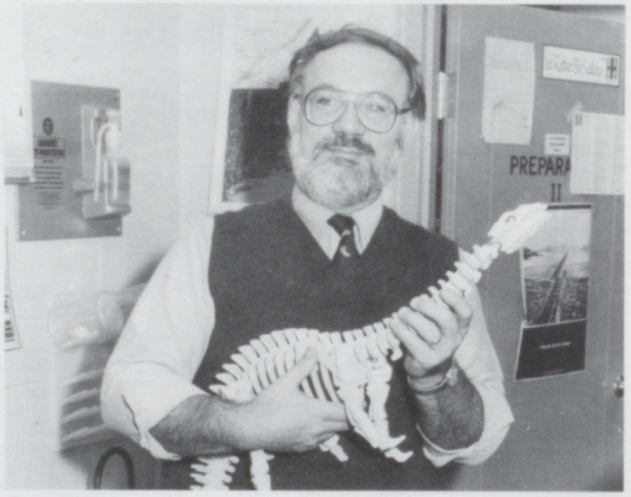

Oh, boy.

How do you spell Physics?

Hey, little lady — wanna see some amoeba?

But can Van Halen play the dinosaur ribs?

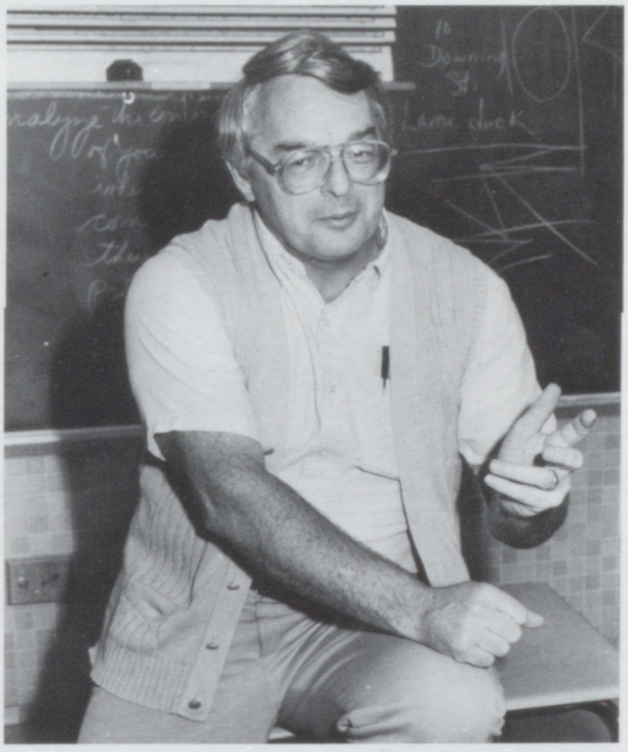

Sposin' I moo for you?!

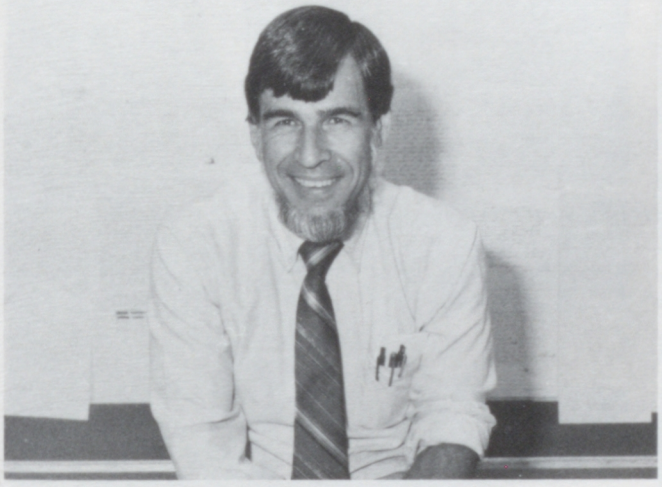

La Cucaracha . . .

I plead insanity! Send me back to Japan.

You want your tests back . . . don't go near my desk!

Sure, I believe you ran a 2-minute mile!

My grandfather was Bilbo Baggins.

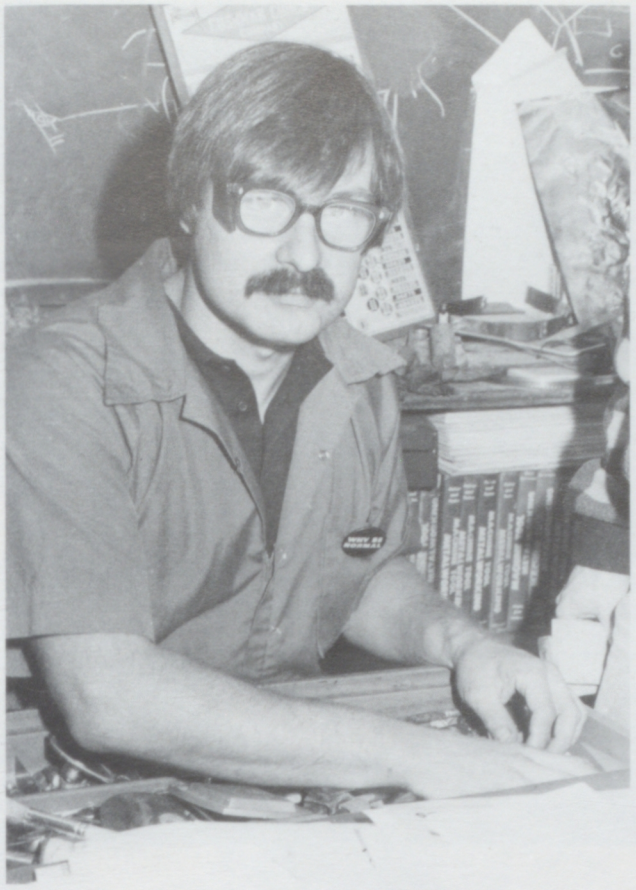

All I need now is a torch and a book!

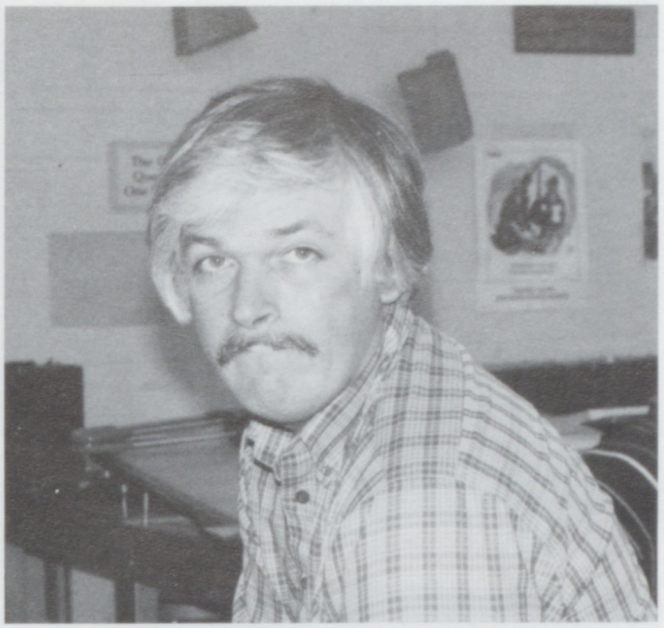

That's no excuse — it still counts as an error.

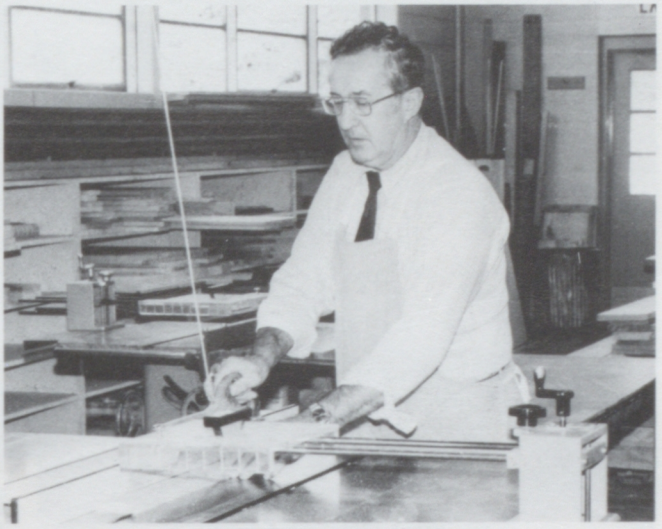

Put it away. I type slower at gunpoint.

I really don't care — I'd rather be in bed.

Just call me "Russ the Raccoon."

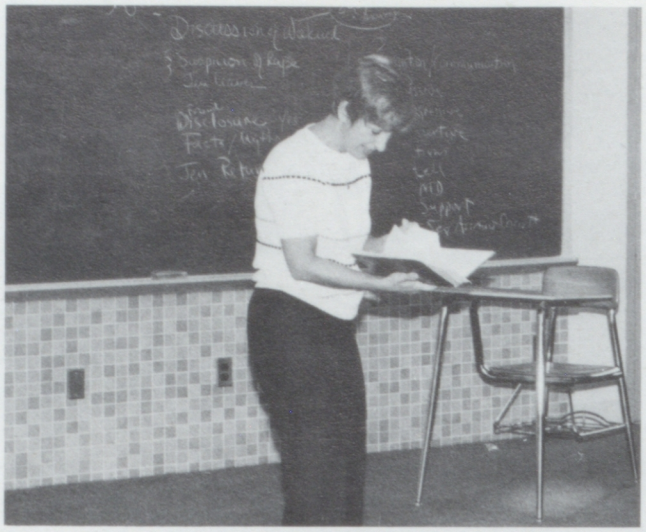

Oh no, I think I've got my fingers!

I don't change diapers.

Welcome to Family Feud; meet the Laemel Family.

Hold on kids, my lesson plan is here somewhere.

Oh, more Freshmen.

Come on now. Stop swinging off those lights!

Take the !!e! picture!

With a "moo moo" here and a "quack quack" there . . .

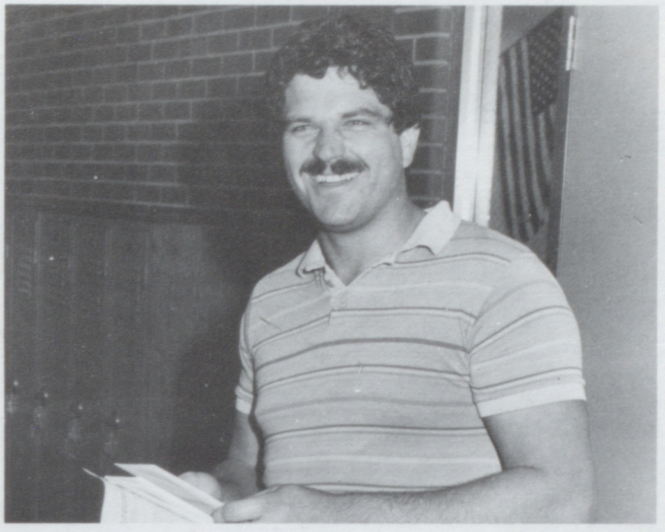

The smile comes with the bow tie.

He-man's got nothing on me.

Gimme, Gimme what I cry for!

You want me to be the cheerleading advisor?

This is one of my best works. It's my personal favorite.

If I look mean enough, maybe I can scare these freshmen!

E.T. or U.T. . . . this is the question.

Hell's Angels — here I come!

Please don't get sick until I'm off the phone!

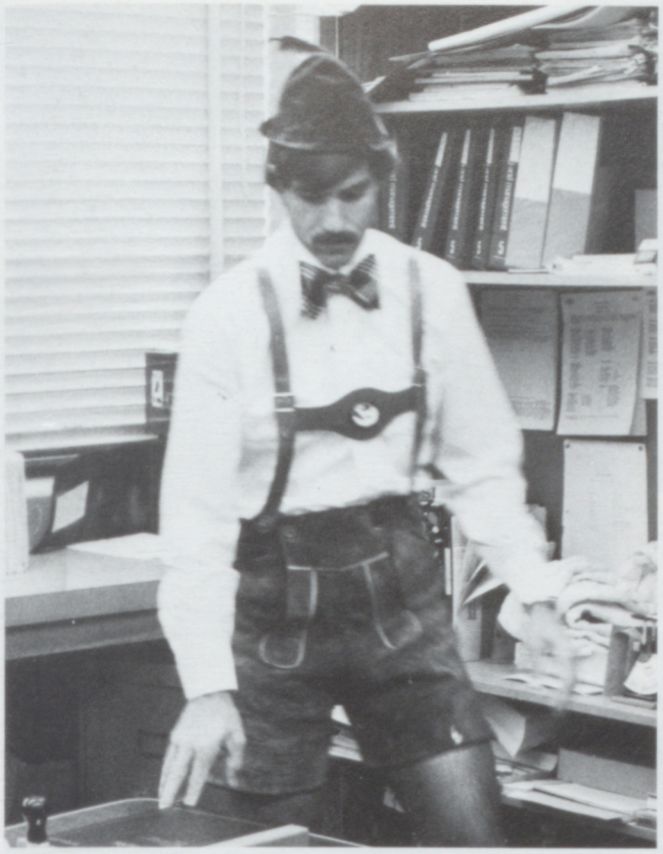

You gave away how many boxes of M&M's?

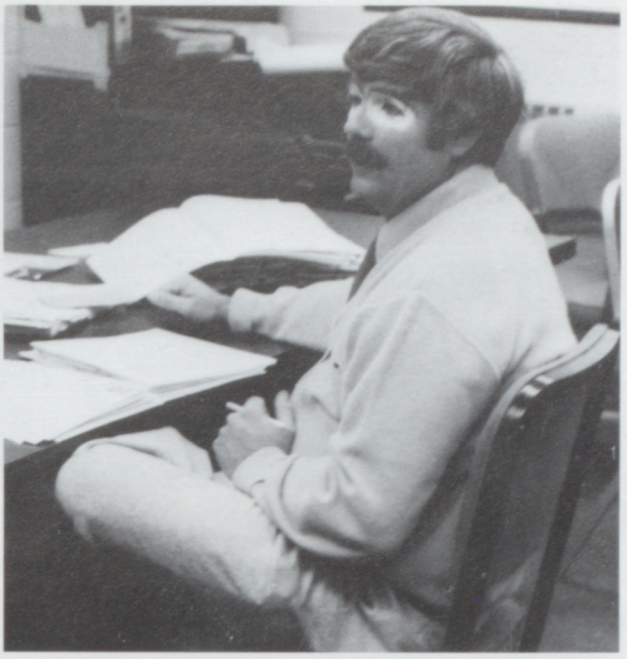

Domino's is calling to confirm . . . 100 large pizzas?!

I think I was a daisy in a previous life.

Hi Ho, Hi Ho, it's off to work we go.

My wife left the face mask on too long — now it's permanent.

What? Missy's in internal?

So, you want to change your whole schedule? How nice!

a,s,d,f, space ;,l,k,j.

Is it Friday yet?!

You're doing a research paper on Mickey Mouse?

I'm not going to try it — you try it!

Make it a double!

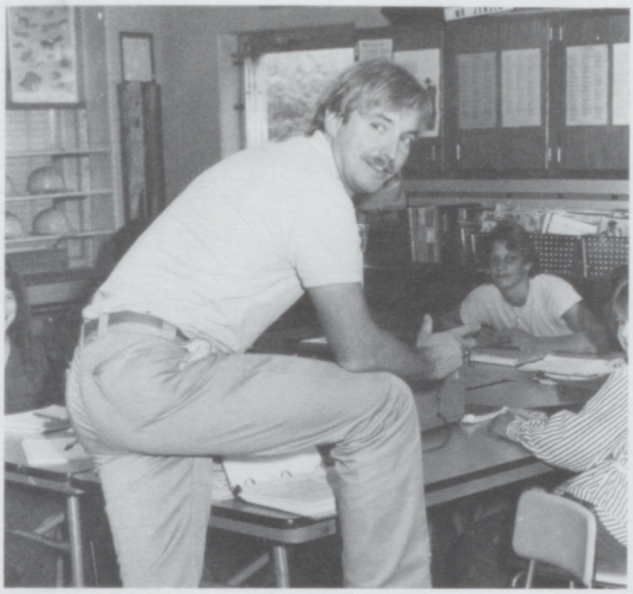

I lost 15 pounds in just 2 easy days.

You look marvelous!

My watch says 10:00 — but it feels like 2:05.

They asked me to model for Jordache; I'm just practicing.

Just call me Little Joe!

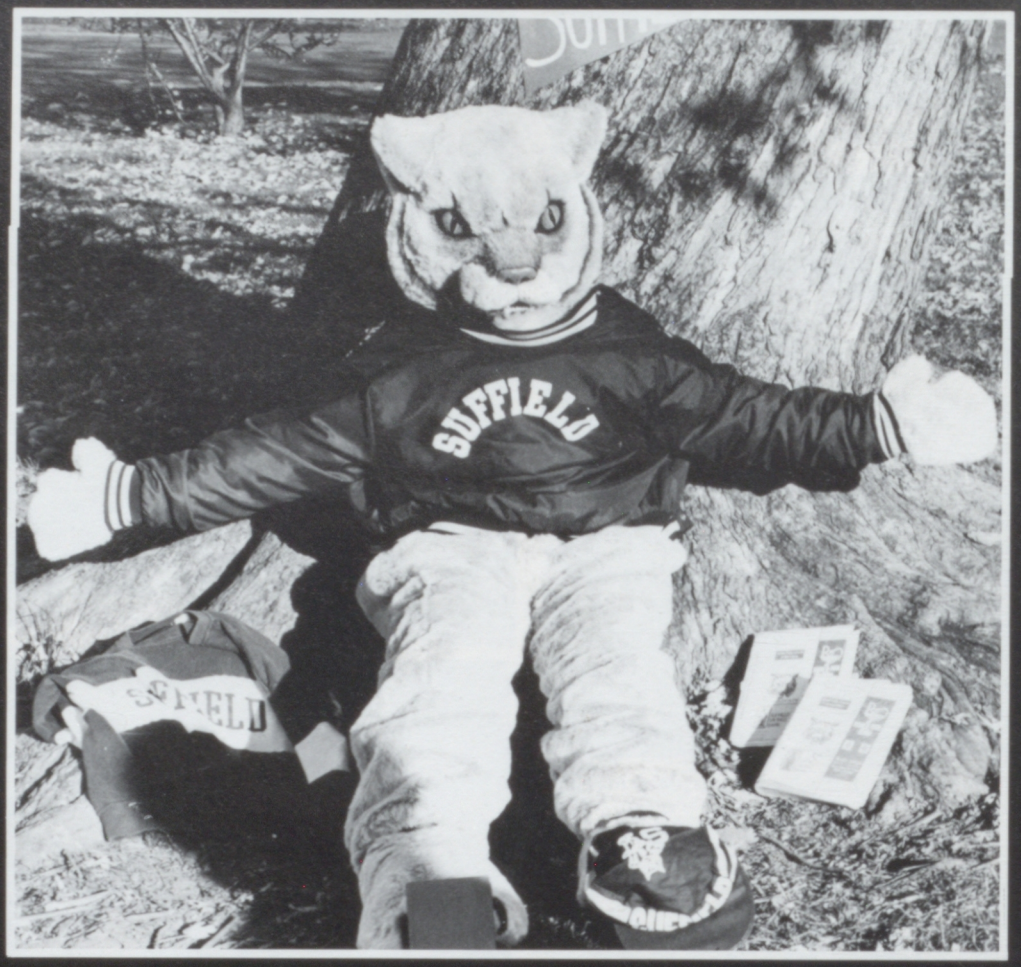

If I have to do another sample S.A.T. I'll . . .

I wish I knew what this meant!!

CLASS LOG

Chapter One — Freshman Year. Once upon a time when we were an unruly class of eighth graders, knowing it was high time for a change, we journeyed across the parking lot to Suffield High School. With wide eyes we began to experience all that the high school had to offer. We looked up to the upperclassmen and waited in anticipation for the days when we, too, could drive to McDonald's. We proudly displayed our new 1986 class jackets, around town and to Studio New York, our main source of entertainment. Here we danced to the sounds of Men at Work, Go-Gos, Rick Springfield, and Journey. Toward the end of the year, with a little experience behind us, we advanced from our freshman status and gladly accepted our new title.

Chapter Two — Sophomore Year. Walking through the halls, we noticed that this year's freshmen looked unusually young. Had we ever been so small? Our ring committee meetings kept us amused and we finally made our decisions and placed our orders. In Biology class, we dissected dead animals, with some reluctance (careful not to get frog juice on our new rings), and prayed for passing grades. Our class spirit shone through this year. We won "Deck the Halls" and we cheered our basketball team on with handfuls of confetti. Then came summer and, along with it, the mad dash to get our licenses. We had our first part-time jobs and learned how to be irresponsible with our new-found freedom.

Chapter Three — Junior Year. Upperclassmen at last!! We enhanced our class treasury by our candy sale. Using this money, we organized our very first prom. After much hair pulling, our theme was decided on. Madonna started the slow dancing with "Crazy for You." This was the year we watched (with pride) as our basketball team won the state championship! After each winning game we loaded our cars and headed for Frankie's, our favorite place to celebrate. When the celebrations died down, we became serious and prepared to take S.A.T.'s. Come June, we bid a tearful good-bye to our Senior friends, and the realization came that we were now the Seniors. We had reached the highest rung on the ladder.

Chapter Four — Senior Year. After an adventurous summer, we returned to school "walking tall" with the knowledge that we were the ruling class. We started off the year by showing that we could work together by cooperating to create our 1986 Class Portrait. We filled out college applications and sent them off with crossed fingers. With prayers for acceptances in the back of our heads, we managed to forget our "senior stresses" long enough to have some serious fun. We danced up storms at our Senior Semi-formal and our prom. We sold magazines as our final senior class fund raiser and everybody proudly sported Weeples. Friendships strengthened as the date of our inevitable parting loomed ahead. Soon we were wondering where time had gone as the big moment arrived. With many memories, anticipations, fears, and dreams, we stood together as a class one last time and took that important step on graduation day.

CLASS

It's 11:30 A.M. on May 12th, 1996, and Suffield is all a-bustle. It is the occasion of all occasions, a triple event in one: the reunion of the S.H.S. class of 1986, the opening of an exclusive hotel, and a long-awaited wedding. Mountain Road is lined with traffic as guests and class members begin to arrive at the scene, the Kent House. In five minutes the ribbon will be cut and what used to be called the Kent House will be dubbed The Milligan Manor. TIM MILLIGAN, hotel owner, and his administrator NICOLE BOLLIGER, anxiously await the arrival of U.S. Senator MICHAEL SMITH, who will cut the ribbon for the opening. Standing behind the proud owner are construction worker DAN FALOTICO, architectural draftsman DAN JUSTICE, and electrical engineer PAUL HOERNER, all collaborators on the renovation of the new hotel. At last Senator Smith has arrived and the crowd cheers as the ribbon is cut. The festivities of the day have just begun.

Walking tall in his three-piece suit and his dark "shades" is Central American dictator PAT WATTERS, and displayed on his arm in lavish attire is his third wife, heiress MARIANNE LUCIA. Surrounding the couple are armed bodyguards BRIAN PENLAND, CRAIG FRICKE, and TODD VIETS, also with their "shades" on. Of late, several attempts have been made on Dictator Watters' life. Upon entering the grounds they enthusiastically seek out their old classmates. Pro bowler MICHAEL LICHSTEIN, boat owner C. R. JOHNSON, and dog groomer LISA HUNT, embrace each other in greeting.

Next, we see ERIK SCHMIDT, with MICHELLE RACINE and JAY PETKOVICH, all relaxing on a marble bench, reading The Wall Street Journal. Standing behind the bench are accountants JON STEARNS, PETER GLYNN, YVETTE DeRAMUS, DARREL MEIER, BECKY ROBERTS, and JULIE HINCKLEY, trying to glimpse the latest stock figures. Also mingling with this small group is businessman BUDDY DUNN with his secretary, JEAN RYAN.

Making their way into the hotel, led by the hotel's assistant administrator PAUL MUSKA, are Suffield's own team of medical professionals: Dr. DAVID McKENNEDY, Dr. PATRICE MINER, biomedical engineer ANDREA JENTZEN, physical therapist JUDY NEWHALL, radiological technician JUDI OSOWIECKI, and paramedic MICHELLE MELANEY. The topic of their conversation is how to cure MICHELLE "the bag lady" DeCHESSER'S sleep disorder. They are joined by pediatrician JAMIE STEWART, who is looking for some stimulating medical discussion.

In the hotel's Linke-Demarest Lounge we find co-owners CHRIS LINKE and RANDY DEMAREST sipping martinis with licensed liquor supplier BOB MARKOWSKI and bartender DAN LAWRENCE.

They are exuberantly discussing their four former classmates who are preparing the post-wedding entertainment: dancers LEEANNE PLOURD and RONDA KOSMAN, rock star ROB KEMP and comedian DAVID SIMMONS. The four had prepared a special occasion variety show for the evening; Corporate law executive MELISSA SCHWALBACH bounces into the lounge and sits down with the guys to tell them all about her law firm, when secretary DEE DEE DYER enters. The two women embrace and start to talk about their days as wenches at the S.H.S. madrigal dinners.

In one corner of the lounge are Coast Guard Officer CARI BAUMERT, Marines STEPHEN RUSCZYK, and LYELL MARINACCIO, and Army officers BILL McQUILLAN and TIM RUHL. The five are having a heated debate on which of he armed services has more to offer. Philosopher KAROLEN DEUPREE jumps into the conversation and offers her opinion. All in the lounge are content to chat and mingle for another hour before seating for the wedding begins.

Outside, strolling around the grounds, are tax consultant HEIDI NEWTON, and S.H.S. physical education teacher DAN PERETTI. They admire the landscaping created by PAT MANFREDA, JEFF FLETCHER, and BOB LeBLANC, and then walk into the gardens designed by SUE WADENKLEE and LATONIA LINDSAY. There they encounter former classmate KELLY GLYNN, who is presently the owner of the Chicago Bears. Surrounding her are the twenty-five muscular jocks that make up her team, the "Refrigerator" among them. Standing a short distance away are beauty spa co-owners TRACY KOPACSY and TRACY BEDNAZ, eyeballing the beauty displayed in the garden, namely that which surrounds Kelly.

Delicious odors from the kitchen waft out over the guests as head chef JACKIE MOORE and her assistant, JOHN GREGORY, prepare the sumptuous wedding feast. Hotel restaurant manager MARCUS WILLIAMS pores over the wine list with wine connoisseurs ALISON HARDY and JOE HOCK.

Sitting in the Williams Restaurant catching up on Suffield gossip are TAMMY TACEY, cosmetologist BETTY ANN SHIMKO, veterinarian assistant LENORA WEBB, Vo-Ag teacher LAURA WIMPFHEIMER, and mechanical science teacher JOE NOVAK.

In another corner of the restaurant are accountant MIKE WISLOCKI, farmers MARSHALL BENWARE, GARY BOHNER, and MARK ROSANSKY — all a captive audience for authors KRISTEN KLING and PATTY RODNEY. Patty is telling of her newest book: One Hundred And One Mr. T. Impersonations. Police officer MIKE EVANS also listens in amusement.

On the back lawn, where the ceremony is to be held, pianist GARY HEYSE is setting the mood by playing one of his well-known original compositions. Standing up at the altar preparing their notes are Father DAVID FLASINSKI and his assistant, Deacon CHUCK LANGER. A feeling of growing excitement is in the air.

Sitting by the champagne fountain are many of today's "up and coming" athletic celebrities: Pro basketball star MICHAEL DANIEL, major league baseball player MATT MONETTE, U.S. world gymnast DARREL DeNOMME, AUTUMN DUCKER, and STEVE SULLIVAN, and All-Around world jock MEG GLIME.

Child psychologists SUE VARHOLAK and Sue Winiarski, and mothers NIKKI CARRIERI and BRIGETTE DION are discussing the theories of the effects of diaper rash on brain development, while chasing their lively broods up and down the hotel stairs. SUE WINIARSKI comments on MICHAEL GRAY'S beautiful artwork hanging on the hotel walls. KUMI HORIKAWA, MATT HRYNIEWICZ, and PAM PIEPEL are also admiring the artwork.

Social workers DAWN HULEVITCH and RENE MAYOTTE are downstairs at the main desk batting their eyes and trying to get dates with self-made millionaire CHUCK BRIDGES. However Chuck has eyes only for marketing whiz LINDA GRANGER, who is talking to her good friend, computer engineer TOM WOODRUFF.

Also lounging around the desk are bellboy ART OUIMET and front desk secretaries JEAN GREGORY and LISA BREW. These two talented secretaries are responsible for the successful completion of all the day's arrangements.

Administrator Bolliger is presently showing a select group the manor's exclusive computer communications room. In the entourage are four of the class' computer experts: RALPH GEDNEY, DAVID RUSSELL, IAN URCH, and WILLIAM VANGASBECK, and four engineers: KEITH DEVIN, PHIL GAUGHAN, STEPHEN DALLESANDER, and DAWN HERNDON. Dawn wishes to show the others some computer tricks she learned when she lived in New Zealand.

It's now 12:25 p.m., time for seating to begin, and DAWN TRAINOR, CBS News announcer, sweeps through the hotel, letting everyone know that it is time to move to the back lawn.

Ushering the distinguished guests to their seats are exotic male dancers CHRIS CAIAZZO, JOHN KINGMAN, BILL AUSTIN, and JEFF WOODCOCK. Elementary school teachers, co-workers of the bride, LEEANNE CORRIVEAU, TIFFANY NAMETH, LAURIE PALMER, and physical education teacher ANNE SANGIOVANNI, are being seated on the bride's side by usher Caiazzo. Chris is loudly reminiscing about his "glory days" on "As Schools Match Wits." 1992 Teacher of the Year, Laurie Palmer, gives him a look of reprimand and Chris moves on to the next group of people.

Seating themselves on the groom's side are conservationist DAVID BINDER, forest manager BRIAN WRIGHT, agriculturist KATHY DILLON, and government researcher KRISSY DORN.

The crowd falls silent as Hollywood actress KIM WORCESTER and her film director, ARTHUR ROY, make their entrance. Ms. Worcester most recently completed the movie "Where the Boys Are — 1992," starring opposite Richard Gere. Roving reporter SUZIE EGOLF, photographer ROXANNE HINKLE, and journalists DORIS VILLOTA and THERESA KLOSEK, all members of an ABC news team rush over to interview the actress and famous film director, to find out the "real story" on Richard Gere.

Usher Jeff Woodcock is seating Dictator Watters and heiress Lucia, when Marianne suddenly leaves her husband to chat with old friend, children's author JODIE ADAMICK. With an exchange of glances and a sly look directed towards Dictator Watters, Marianne and Jodie hurry off to the garden. Following closely behind them are private detectives SHERRY WILSON and DIANE MAIOLO.

Seated in the front row are professional skier LORI DeGENNARO, business executive JENNY MURRAY, and lawyer GERRY MILVAE. A row behind them are certified public accountants and co-owners of Christian, Harris & Peppers Accounting: RITA CHRISTIAN, TIA HARRIS, and GORDON PEPPERS.

All guests are now seated and anxiously awaiting the ceremony. Upstairs in the Milligan Manor, the bride and groom are in their separate dressing quarters. The bride, alone with her bridesmaid, KRISTEN CHAMBERLAIN, is nervously pacing the carpet, exclaiming: "Geesh, Kristen, I can't believe I'll be married in ten minutes! Is this the right thing to do? I mean, every time we even dance together I get a crick in my neck for at least a week — he's so tall!" The groom is experiencing similar anxiety attacks with his best man, KEITH WILD. "This is really it, Keith, but are we doing the right thing? Every time I dance with her my back is cramped for a week — she's so short!" reasons the groom.

"Oh, but I love him!"

"So what, I love her! Let's go, Keith; I'm ready."

The groom and his best man take their places at the altar and are smiled upon by the holy twosome — Deacon Langer and Father Flasinski, and the music begins. Gary Heyse accompanies Broadway talent JILL LaGASSE as she sings "Just the Way You Are" by Billy Joel. Kristen begins the walk down the aisle and a few paces behind her are the bride and her beaming father.

"What incredible gowns!" cry fashion designers DARCY CASE and ANNETTE GAYNOR. They turn to each other and proudly congratulate themselves on the two beautiful gowns they jointly designed. Reaching the altar, the bride receives a kiss from her father and is turned over to her husband-to-be. The music stops and Father Flasinski begins.

"We are gathered here today — ." Two loud sobs are heard from the front row of the groom's side as Mr. K. and Uncle Jim tearfully embrace. Uncle Jim, realizing they have created a scene, pulls out a box of M&M's to keep themselves quiet, and Mr. K. waves on Father Flasinski to continue.

"Do you, ANDREW DAS, take Susannah to be your lawfully-wedded wife?" The groom nods his head and whispers "I do." "Do you, SUSANNAH WHITE, take Andrew to be your lawfully-wedded husband?" "I . . ."

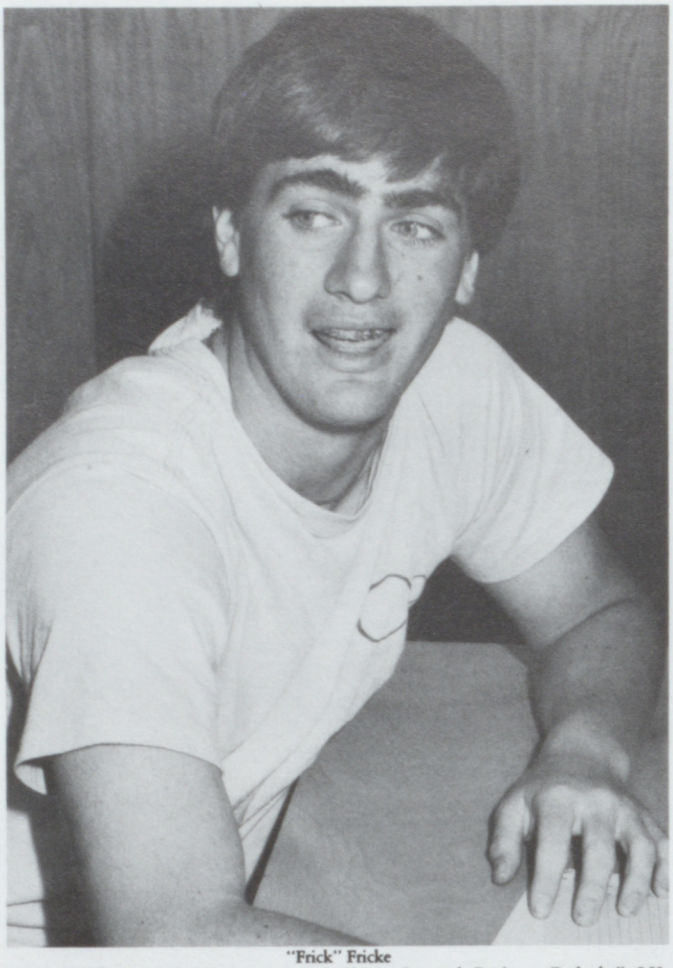

BANG! Before the bride can reply, an extremely loud gun shot is heard. All heads whirl around to see where the shot came from. Standing in back holding a pistol is Marianne Lucia, and beside her, Jodie Adamick. The two women are smirking and Marianne shouts, "Sorry to disturb this lovely occasion, people, but I have some pressing business to attend to with my husband." Pat Watters stands up from his seat and cries, "No, Mare, don't do it! Let's discuss this rationally — does it have anything to do with my not letting you have any cats in our mansion?"

"Sorry, Pat darling, it's too late for talk." The guests scream in terror as Marianne raises the gun, aims it at Pat's head and slowly squeezes the trigger. Just in time, detectives Sherry and Diane jump on top of her and knock the gun to the ground. Sherry whips out her handcuffs, and Marianne and Jodie are led away.

The guests breathe sighs of relief, and the bride, fearful of any other delays, forcefully says "I do!"

"You may kiss the bride." A burst of applause comes from the guests, and overhead a roar is heard. Pilots JAY OSOWIECKI and MICHAEL DeVRIES are flying airplanes with messages trailing. They read: "I Love You, Susy" and "I Love You, Andy."

What a day! What a reunion! What an incredible class!!

BILL AUSTIN leaves behind great memories of S.H.S.; #2 to the hockey team; and all the fun times he and his friends had during his years at S.H.S. He leaves all of the empty rolls of tape to Mrs. Egolf; but most of all, he leaves the spirit of RAMBILL.
MARSHALL BENWARE leaves behind Jeff, his best friend, and everyone else: Wade, Beth, Mike, Spanky, Varmit, Dawn, John, Rosey, BB Bohner, and Steve. He leaves to Mr. Griffin a bunch of bananas; and to Mrs. Holloway a bunch of troubles. See ya all.
NICOLE BOLLIGER leaves S.H.S. with a lot of great memories. She leaves Mr. K. with an organized AE class; best of luck to all future cheerleaders, basketball coaches and their teams, and lots of luck and success to Spooey, Kel. T., Doris, Jen, and Heid. Remember — it's all right to live it up if you can live it down!
LISA BREW leaves, remembering all the great times with Tiff, Nikki, Becky, and Dee, with a heart full of love to them all, and thanks for making everything they did great. She leaves Sho, a friend forever, good luck; and love and the best of times to Paul.
CARI BAUMERT leaves Tracy D. the courage to handle Mike W.; M.M., T.S., K.E., J.L., B.Y., to be friends; K.P. to studmaster; Paul M., Jeff B., Karen P. and Chip S. to have fun "volunteering"; Tony to anyone who can put up with his sense of humor; Jeff W. to handle Michele D.; Mrs. Corcoran's honors classes to any "Lazy" people; and lots of weekends for the classes to come.
CHARLES BRIDGES leaves fill to J.E., his parking spot to whoever is qualified to use it; the weekends to G and Melon; a transmission and a car to K.F.; his nose to Mr. Thomas; a Chevy Camaro to Mr. Grous; and thanks for the memories and good times, to the gang.
CHRIS CAIAZZO leaves his brother Adam the scamper; a soccer ball to Grace; Ocean Beach to next year's class.
NIKKI CARRIERI leaves Suffield High School with many good memories and friends. She leaves the ladies in the bathroom: Shannon, Buzzard and Missy, to be happy; her friends, all the happiness in the world; a ride to school with Petkovich; and a lot of great memories in the Nova. She leaves special friendships to Tiffany, Lisa, and Becky; But most of all, she leaves a lifetime friendship with Buckwheat.
DARCY CASE leaves hand in hand with Ian; all the fun memories with IJU, KC, CB, KEG, JM, SE, HN, PW, KW, CF, JK, CL, MG, LD, MS, and everyone else; Melissa with the nickname of Yoda; the summer of '85; our popoid from Mickey D; a wink, all her love and many, many more great times to Ian.
KRISTEN CHAMBERLAIN leaves Mr. Picard all her great ideas so he "can sleep nights"; Sue Alers to put up with "you-know-who," and best of luck in Field Hockey; Dr. Johnson her sales slip from Cape Cod; the tennis team to Kathy and Susie; and great memories with K.G., S.E., J.M., D.C., and H.N.
LEEANNE CORRIVEAU leaves many thanks and all her love to her family and friends for their support during her senior year; special memories to Buckwheat, and thanks for the special friendships of Michelle, Rene, and Amy. She leaves thanks to Mr. C, Mr. Fuller, and Mr. Gregor for their support; her D period English class to Danny, George, Stuart, and Brian; and to Mrs. Novak, Miss Nappier and Mr. Aniello, her half year with triple gym.
STEPHEN DALLESANDER leaves Vo-Ag to anyone who would take it.
ANDY DAS leaves all his love to Susy; PW walking on the wild side; SSFL memories to all those who survived, and a pat on the back to Lance, who almost didn't. Ha leaves a ride in the Getaway car to Pete, Pat, Craig, and Chilly, but most importantly he leaves fantastic memories of great times with all his friends and thanks to one and all!
MICHELLE DECHESSER leaves with recollections of the fun she had with Sue, Jodie, Eric, Bryan, Sue, Leah, and Carolyn; a case of J.D. for Goober; Siouxie and New Order for Bryan; some everlasting gum for Sue V.; a mirror for Carolyn; and thinking that "punk" is an overused word.
YVETTE DeRAMUS leaves her memorable 7 years to P.C. students and S.H.S.; a picture of Philip Michael Thomas to Patty; all her advice to Tonia; fun and laughs to Annette; a big hug to Mr. and Mrs. Roy, Mr. Gregor, and Mrs. Williams; and a hilarious bus ride to Marcus, Mike, and Trish.
LORI DiGENNARO leaves S.H.S. with many memories; thanks to Meg and Timmy who have always been her closest buddies — the foursome will always have each other. She leaves "love ya's" and thanks to N.C., D.M., T.N., B.R., and L.B. for the fun times in Office Procedures; a soccer season she'll never forget to Mr. G; and good luck to Rob, and all those who have been so dear to her.
KRISTINA DORN leaves paranoia to schizophrenics; old G.D. paraphernalia to Karo D. and Danny; almost nothing to nearly everyone; superficial regrets to S.S., D.S., and M.S.; a rapidly expanding universe to an inconsequential god; and Suffield to anyone interested in apathetic monotony.
AUTUMN DUCKER leaves P.D. all the lessons he can handle, lots of thanks, love, and luck to her friends. She leaves S.J. $15.00 plus interest — take care, guys. She also leaves to Brian many thanks for being there.
MICHAEL DeVRIES leaves his sister Tracey nothing; a can of 7-Up to P.C.; and to J.T. and G.G., a block of wax to fight over.
DEEDEE DYER leaves the dream of the Palomino Hussies to Mr. K; lawn and lush parties to Alan, Terr, Pat, Amy, and Jim, if he can handle it; a real set of skis and many fun memories to Jason; the Mardi-Gras to Rich; a dark Italian woman smoking a cigar, dressed in black, to Mr. Pacocha; Erik Marc with his own '87 line of clothing; and Bob L. with a guilty conscience and a shoe box filled with bunny fur. But most of all, she leaves SHS with the greatest friends and memories anyone could ask for.
SUZIE EGOLF leaves all of her prescriptions for valium and "chill Pills" to J.K., P.W., Mr. K, and J.G.; a taped episode of Friday Night Videos to H.N. so they both can watch the whole thing; all of their good times to anyone who can handle them; a boat to K.W.; a brown Olds to K.C.; a broken triangle to D.C.; a new night to J.M. — "That's not the way to do it!"; Melissa at Food Bag; memories of Europe to K.G., S.W., and A.J.; Field Hockey to K.H., S.A. (picky), A.H., A.F., and K.K.; All her love to her mom and friends; good luck to Joey — he'll need it; thanks to P.C., and a pumpkin in a bowling alley to Meg!
CRAIG FRICKE leaves Mr. Gregor all the money he owes him, and many thanks for the last four years; and Mark and Pat, thanks for all the good times.
ANNETTE GAYNOR leaves all her books to the lucky underclassmen; her clothes to the newest fashions that will enter S.H.S.; she leaves her brain she didn't use, but should have; she leaves love and affection to the upcoming generation. She leaves all her time to the place where she'll use it.
MEG GLIME leaves Kim M., Sue E., Gina P., Moe, Sue N., and Jaydeen to carry on the tradition of all the wonderful jokes — terrorizing Mr. G; and Kim and Stacy to make all the goals. She leaves all the good times that she had to Dana with hopes that she has as many!
KELLY GLYNN leaves M.O.C. to no one; M&M's to S.B.; parties to Suzie (Scuzi and Grazi); A cherry lik-a-maid to Heidi; to Jen, another Wednesday night and some personal paper; to K.C. a new car, a new guardrail; a two-person relationship to Darc; to Nicole a "trust me," and the best of luck to Amy, Kath, Brian, and Kerri. She leaves thanks to Mrs. E, S.E., J.M., D.C. (I.U.), N.B., K.C., H.N., (D.P.) P.W. (the snake), J.K., P.G., C.C., M.G., and all the rest; 50 million of everything to everyone, and the best summer yet to come (if possible) to the class of 1986!
PETE GLYNN leaves Pat and Frick a can of paint and a pair of handcuffs; Mrs. Egolf, an empty chair in her office; Mr. K, a flack jacket; Phil to Joey Egolf; and to Mr. C, good luck with the remaining 8 Glynns.
JEAN GREGORY leaves as one of the first Gregory's to graduate from SHS; Mr. C with no one to collect the absentees or answer the phones A period; and she leaves with memories of all the good times she had at SHS.
JOHN GREGORY leaves Mr. C all of his late notes; and many good times with J.R., D.H., W.R., and J.M.
ALLISON HARDY leaves Debbie making trouble; Jason on the slopes; Kim at the House of Tang paying the tip; Ketchup wondering how he got the nickname of a squashed tomato; Rick late for dinner; and S.H.S. with a song in her heart.
TIA HARRIS leaves S.H.S. as the last of the Harrises; to Mr. C, no more late notes; thanks to Amy, Tiffany, Nicole, Lisa, and Doris for all the great times of the past four years; Amy to find someone else to help her to get off the dumpster; telling Nicole not to forget all those nights at Springfield College. She leaves the best of luck to Amy and Lisa next year; and to Tim, thanks for being there when she needed him!
PAUL HOERNER leaves Coach Sinicrope a pair of worn training shoes, the thrill of victory, and his friendship; he leaves the S.H.S. legacy of good distance runners, with hopes that it will continue; he leaves memories of his friends, and all of their great times.
MATT HRYNIEWICZ leaves his text books to all students; and his shortness to any small underclassman.
DAWN HULEVITCH leaves to join Drew in the "real" world; Vo-Ag to anyone who wants it; fun times at S.H.S. to Jeff, Wade, Beth, Barbie, Elaine, and the rest of her friends.
ANDREA JENTZEN leaves with memories of awesome shopping sprees and cats to Susy; Europe to Suzie, Kelly, Susy, Andy, and Jeff; ASMW to Scott, Co-Op to the future class of '87; and finally a collection of fond memories.
ROB KEMP leaves a worn path to his house; desks to sleep on; and memories of all the good times.
KRISTEN KLING leaves a director's chair to Mr. Picard; school spirit for those who need it; the mechanical Universe forever; Mr. Walat a nice day and a flower; and a new job to T.S.
THERESA KLOSEK leaves her sister Kathy the memories of being in S.H.S.; knowing the heartaches they shared really paid off in the end. She wishes the best of luck to Kathy and Laura; thanks to Mr. Rohland Thompson for all his help and consideration — he was more of a friend than a counselor; thanks to Mr. C. and the entire staff. She leaves, knowing she enjoyed her four years, and she hopes that her sister Kathy does too.
RONDA KOSMAN leaves to Mr. Thompson all her uncorrected drawings; all her running shoes to her running coaches; to Lori O'Connor all her Biology notes; and her place as captain for when she is a senior.
JILL LaGASSE leaves Marianne counting idiotic responses; Jay $200.00; Roxanne in Boston screaming about Sodium; Susie, a map of CT; Kim, a dancing hall on the waterbed; Mr. Picard, all the gossip we censored; "K," an empty and quiet S.S.O.; and to "P," FINESSE!!
MIKE LICHSTEIN leaves Slasher Daily, Mayhem and Destruction to Dave Abare; all his Iron Maiden records to Larry DeRoiser; front row seats to an Aerosmith concert with backstage passes for Rob Kemp; football cards for Pat Watters, Keith Wild, and Craig Fricke, Billy Holbrook, a hole in one; Mr. Gregor, a cup of "fresh" coffee; his locker to Mike Gray; some respect for Scott Nigro. Finally, he leaves to all the Metalheads in Suffield: "Turn it Up!"
LATONIA LINDSAY leaves lots of love and good times to the Project Concern girls: to Lenora she leaves times of laughter; to Annette, times of joy; to Patricia, many memories; to Sherry, times of aggravation. She leaves Yvette a punch in the eye for plucking her nerves. (just kidding). She hopes to leave a memory of herself in their hearts and minds.

CHRIS LINKE leaves his Mustang to Mark's Auto Parts.
MARIANNE LUCIA leaves Chris her golden shovel with the hopes that he'll use it; the phone in her room to Jeff for all of his marathon phone calls (only while she's away); and she leaves S.H.S. with many great friends and memories.
DIANE MAIOLO leaves lots of good times and partying to her sister, Buzzard; Fleabine a touch tone light for his truck and to Jay a wake-up special. She leaves many thanks to her friends for making these years memorable and special, especially to Nikki for an unforgettable friendship.
RENE MAYOTTE leaves much appreciation to her family for their love and support; all the beautiful memories and many more to come, a giant hug and kiss, eternal gratefulness, and an endless supply of parties to Michelle; a 3D monkey poster to Tiffany; a gift certificate to Food Mart and much love to Leeanne; many thanks to all her friends, and best wishes to her little sister, Becky, in her years at Suffield High and always — I luv ya, kid!
BILL McQUILLAN leaves the "Big Silver" to R.K.; cover illustrations to H.P. and M.R.; an interview with Lovecraft to J.T.; lots of old gaming stuff for M.C.'s collection, and thanx to D.P. and F.P.
DARREL MEIER leaves Fitz on the goal line with his feetee pajamas; all the Arbyettes to Matt, and a Husker national title; some shrimp and bongo music to Jason to get him going; chicken legs to Joey; and for Diana, his old locker. He leaves his teachers, and a call on line four.
MICHELLE MELANEY leaves her locker to anyone who can remember the combination; Mikey Mike to whoever can figure him out; her classes to anyone who wants them; Jeff W. to handle Michele on his own; E.T. to survive his senior year; J.B., E.T., K.P., to keep the schedule filled; and all the smiles, tears and laughter stirred up, to the classes to come. Good Luck!
TIM MILLIGAN leaves his little brother to carry on the Milligan tradition; to Dana D. the wonderful times that they had; and he leaves the wonderful S.H.S. hockey team.
PATRICE MINER leaves hugs and special thanks to all of the faculty and administration, espcially Mr. and Mrs. Roy, Mrs. C., and Mrs. O'D; archery memories to Brian; cheers to Jackie; love to Laurie; best of luck to A.S.M.W.; sunshine on a rainy day to Mrs. O'D; dancing to Judi O; long bus rides to Tim; memories of work to Suzy; thanks to MS, AJ, LP, KK, MM, DM, KD, SE, SV, ML, JO, GP; memories of Europe to Aaron, Mike, and A.J.; a good breaking off point to Mr. Walat; and smiles for everyone.
JENNY MURRAY leaves love, luck, and success to K.C., K.G., D.C., H.N., and S.E. — and the memories of all the great times they've had!! A pumpkin to Meg; spare car keys to Suzy; much luck to her sister during the next 3 years; Mrs. B with memories of the Cape; and fond memories of her years together to Tom, with the hope for many more 143!!
PAUL MUSKA leaves all his good memories to Tracy K. and Kim W; all the headaches and ulcers he gave "P" through the years; all his teachers to the upcoming Muskas . . . especially Chrissie!!!
TIFFANY NAMETH leaves with a heart full of love and memories with all her friends, especially Lisa, Nikki, Dee, Tia, and Becky, because they'll never be forgotten. She thanks them for all the laughs. She leaves to Deeg a smile; she leaves Michelle and Rene to party, and Mr. C one last chance. She leaves to Sho, best little sis there is, the best of luck with everything she does. Trish the dish, thanks for all the good times, class of '86.
JUDY NEWHALL leaves Michael S. with great times and memories, and the 'gang' with love and happiness for the future; her parents and teachers with 'thanks' for helping her through the past four years by being her friends. She leaves Rick the hope that he will enjoy SHS as much as she did; She leaves Chip with many memories of the past, and many more to come. But most of all, she leaves a sparkling rainbow and a smile for everyone.
HEIDI NEWTON leaves Picky with miles to run; and all the fun with J.M., S.E., K.G., and K.C. to anyone who tries to match it. Finally she leaves with all her memories and thanks to everyone, especially Dan, for great high school years.
JAY OSOWIECKI leaves J.L. with a way to look at the bright side and a smile to match; R.H., a new way to amuse herself by doing nothing, and everything; K.W., with a strawberry ice drink; D.S., a pack of Wint-of-mints and the keys to his car; B.M., a place to watch the sunset with the knowledge that I'm sitting there with him; A.R., the memory of nine years of other mischief.
GORDON PEPPERS leaves SHS with thanks for the fun memories. He leaves Greg Lyon his ball-handling skills and Jeff Strole his speed; Nicole Orr with love and thanks for being a really great friend; a great time in Spanish to Pam Coatti. He leaves Coach Gator with many headaches and good luck for his 86-87 basketball season. He leaves Jennifer Stone and Sarah Makoski with thanks for being good friends. He leaves Melodie Moodie and Dana St. George with love and happiness from classes together and for their friendship. He leaves Mike Daniel and Marcus with a good friendship; and the high school to the SHS Basketball team.
DANIEL PERETTI leaves Gilbert with Maureen, Kim, and Gina to put up with for another year.
MICHELLE RACINE wishes the best of luck to a couple of 'old friends': N.C., T.N. D.M.; she leaves an 'A' in English to Rita; too many unused absences for Dan; a stuffed turkey breast for Leeanne; all her love to Rene for helping her to become a happy and caring person, just as she is; and all her love to Jimmy for being there to share her happiness. Thanx Guys!!
BECKY ROBERTS leaves Suffield High School with no regrets, a lot of good times, a lot of good friends, and lots of luck to her brother Chris.
PATTY RODNEY leaves her royal name (Princess Di) to anyone who wishes to take it, but please use it seriously. To Mr. Dennis, Mrs. Susie, Mrs. Beatrice she leaves her memories, laughter and good times. She leaves peace, even though she knows that it won't reign in Suffield High.
JEAN RYAN leaves SHS joyfully to continue the rest of her life. She leaves with fond memories of all her friends, especially those special times she shared with Sue. She leaves much thanks to all her teachers who made a difference, especially Mrs. S. Smith, who helped her through the bad times in Algebra. Thanks also to all her business teachers, particularly Mrs. Smoolca, for leading her in the right direction. She leaves good luck to her sister Pam, and future happiness to all her friends.
MELISSA SCHWALBACH leaves a mangled fender to K.C.; with thanks to C.B.; B.D. with a flat tire and thanks for a WONDERFUL ski trip 1985!!! She leaves the Cove to A.G., B.D., P.D., A.H., and Vanessa Bouvier Rothschild; D.C. with what she wants; K.W. and C.B., their own gun club; S.V., with great memories of Maine Summers (esp. Steve C. and Todd S.); and the Wall to A.F., A.H., K.P., and D.F.
BETTY ANN SHIMKO leaves Mike Wachado, her oldest friend in school, only good memories and an urge not to skip any more. She leaves Mr. K many happy thoughts of 1983 psych class. Also, the two greatest women in the office, many more long and happy years. Good luck, underclassmen!
DAVID SIMMONS leaves his closet and his harem to Mike Chapman. He leaves one case of strawberry soda to J.C.T.; all of the death muties he can kill; Greg Goodrich one pocket flame thrower and a can of gasoline; and Rob Long all of the weirdness he can deal with.
JAMIE STEWART leaves Jaime her cross country place cards, and Lori O'Connor and Terry Stearns, a great year of fun and running. She leaves Lori looking at those male runners at the big meets. She also leaves a ticket for Mr. Pacocha to go to Broadway to see the show(s) of his choice.
DAWN TRAINOR leaves all her memories and best wishes to her best friend, Betty Boop.
SUE VARHOLAK leaves all her thoughts and poems to Bryan; Jell-O and a straw to Eric; and all her thanx and love to Rich, Dan, Krista, and the Gang.
PAT WATTERS leaves Mr. K a flack jacket for his great SSFL career; Mr. Roy, a crushed 7-Up can; Mr. Walat, a box of strontium and a good breaking off point; Suzie, a box of valium; Andy, to take a walk on the wild side; Keith, a clean Pair of B.V.D.'s; his brother Kevin, a can of paint and some brushes, to continue with the hope that he does not get caught; the fish, one more Boston trip to N.U.; and to Beth, a big 143 and thanks for the good times.
LENORA WEBB leaves all her joy to Mrs. Williams; all the good fun she had with Project Concern; and all the good times she had with Carol in C period Math.
SUSY WHITE leaves a real estate sign to Andy and Kristen with hilarious memories attached; fabulous times in Europe to Andrea, Suzie, and Kelly; six monkeys to Melissa (equipped with typewriters, of course); fun times in the "Bullet" to Batman, and a motorist's prayer to Melissa and Andrea. She leaves all her love to Andy; many hopes that Elizabeth and David will enjoy SHS as much as she did; and thanks to everyone who shared her happiness with her.
KEITH WILD leaves school with some great times; he leaves Melissa the gun club story; Andy the 'DAS VAN' and many thanks for one Saturday night. He leaves the SSFL and hopes for a quick recovery for Lance Alworth. He leaves thanks and some great times to Andy, Craig, Pat, John, Pete, Chris, and the long lost Chilly Willy.
SHERRY WILSON leaves her small locker to any junior who wants it; the D.B. list to Mr. C; Mrs. Potter and imaginative writing to Louis; her good and bad memories to Mr. Fuller; some sanity to Mr. Pacocha; chewed up reeds and her favorite piano to Mr. Migliore; her personality to Stacy Golden; her strength and power to Kim Hawkins; pork fried rice to Mrs. Barron; and finally, her old age and broken bones to Mrs. Metz.
LAURA WIMPFHEIMER leaves millions of thanks to Mr. G, Mrs. H, Mrs. D, and of course Mr. J for all the support they've given her. Dawn H., many thanks for being the best friend anyone could have; to Sue E., the gavel (use it well, my friend); to Greg J., more years on the bus; to Mr. M, the pitchfork her brother forgot to leave. She leaves all Vo-Ag students lots of thanks, love, and enthusiasm.
SUSAN WINIARSKI leaves Neil with three wishes; Jill, a map of Connecticut; Louis and Jeff with best wishes for a fine future together; Jodie, two sheets of typing paper; Jean, a smile; Marianne holding Kim's leash; Roxanne with a hug that means forever; Kim, her very own lip gloss and deodorant; Judy, a rain drop and a Monday; Judi, her love, and a sunrise for the fab five.
JEFF WOODCOCK leaves the memories of TFF to Andy, Sue, and Chris; Jason, a bottle of K; Guido to carry on at sweeper; he leaves thanks to Andy and Sarah C. for coming to all the home soccer games, to his parents for putting up with the noise, and to everyone who has helped him during these past four years.
TOM WOODRUFF leaves happily!
BRIAN WRIGHT leaves Mike R. the hoard of thieves.
KIMBERLY WORCESTER leaves: much love to D. J. Picard, a terrific man, an inspiration, and a friend. May he stay on top of all 'the dirt' and find peace and fulfillment in the path ahead of him; many emotional, happy, hard, rewarding moments to Suzette, Anne-Marie, Jillery, and Rock-Rock, in hopes that one day they should all meet with each other and be wild once again; fond memories of the Big Chill six; the hope that someday she will get to know Timmy Milligan better; another B period '101' section to Larry Katulka and many great talks about 'the cave'; no more telephone wars with Do-Ox-Up (until she comes home), and as many great experiences to Scott in Suffield as she has had; much love to four of her favorite senior men — Christian Andrew, Paul M., William Snow, and Jay 'wet-willie' Osowiecki; success to all.
IAN URCH leaves hand in hand with Darcy, with all the memories and good times they've had; his best friend Chuck to have a good future, and to remember all the good times. He leaves CB, DC, JK, PW, PG, KC, MS, KG, and JD and everybody else with many shared memories. He leaves memories of the summer of '85 and the popoid from Mickey D's; JE to take care of Fill, a hug, all his love and good times to come with Darcy. Thanks, guys, for all the good memories.
DAWN HERNDON leaves Mrs. Corcoran, all G's, Mrs. O'Donnell, Mrs. Kinney, Mr. Duni, Mr. Thomas, and Mrs. Cigal her love, and their relief that she is finally gone. To Aurora, she leaves remembrance of Amber, Auroia, Krilencu, "The Bod," J-O-phile, Friday nights and Shamus. This advice remember, Mr. Thomas, 'cramming' poster.

Sadly Gone

Leaves are blowing in the wind,
Drifting listlessly in my sight
Like the wanderings of my mind.
I think about that dreadful night.
A friend that I had known before
Had been robbed of his precious life.
Gone now was his cheerful talk,
His voice silent as the edge of a knife.
My memory flies back to before that time
When breath still moved within his chest.
He was good, kind, and warm of heart.
He was a friend, he was the best.
Now the wind whistles by my ears
Like a sad moan from a ghostly voice
Tears start trickling in gleaming streams
As I think about God's painful choice.
He was much too young to go so soon;
A sad event in the lives of many.
Gone also are his laughing eyes
That twinkled like a brand new penny.
We'll miss him greatly, this man, this friend,
And still shall miss him until the end.

— Michael Gray

AS WE CONTINUE TO GROW IN OUR NEW ENVIRONMENT

WE SHALL KEEP WITH US THE LOVE OF OUR FRIENDS

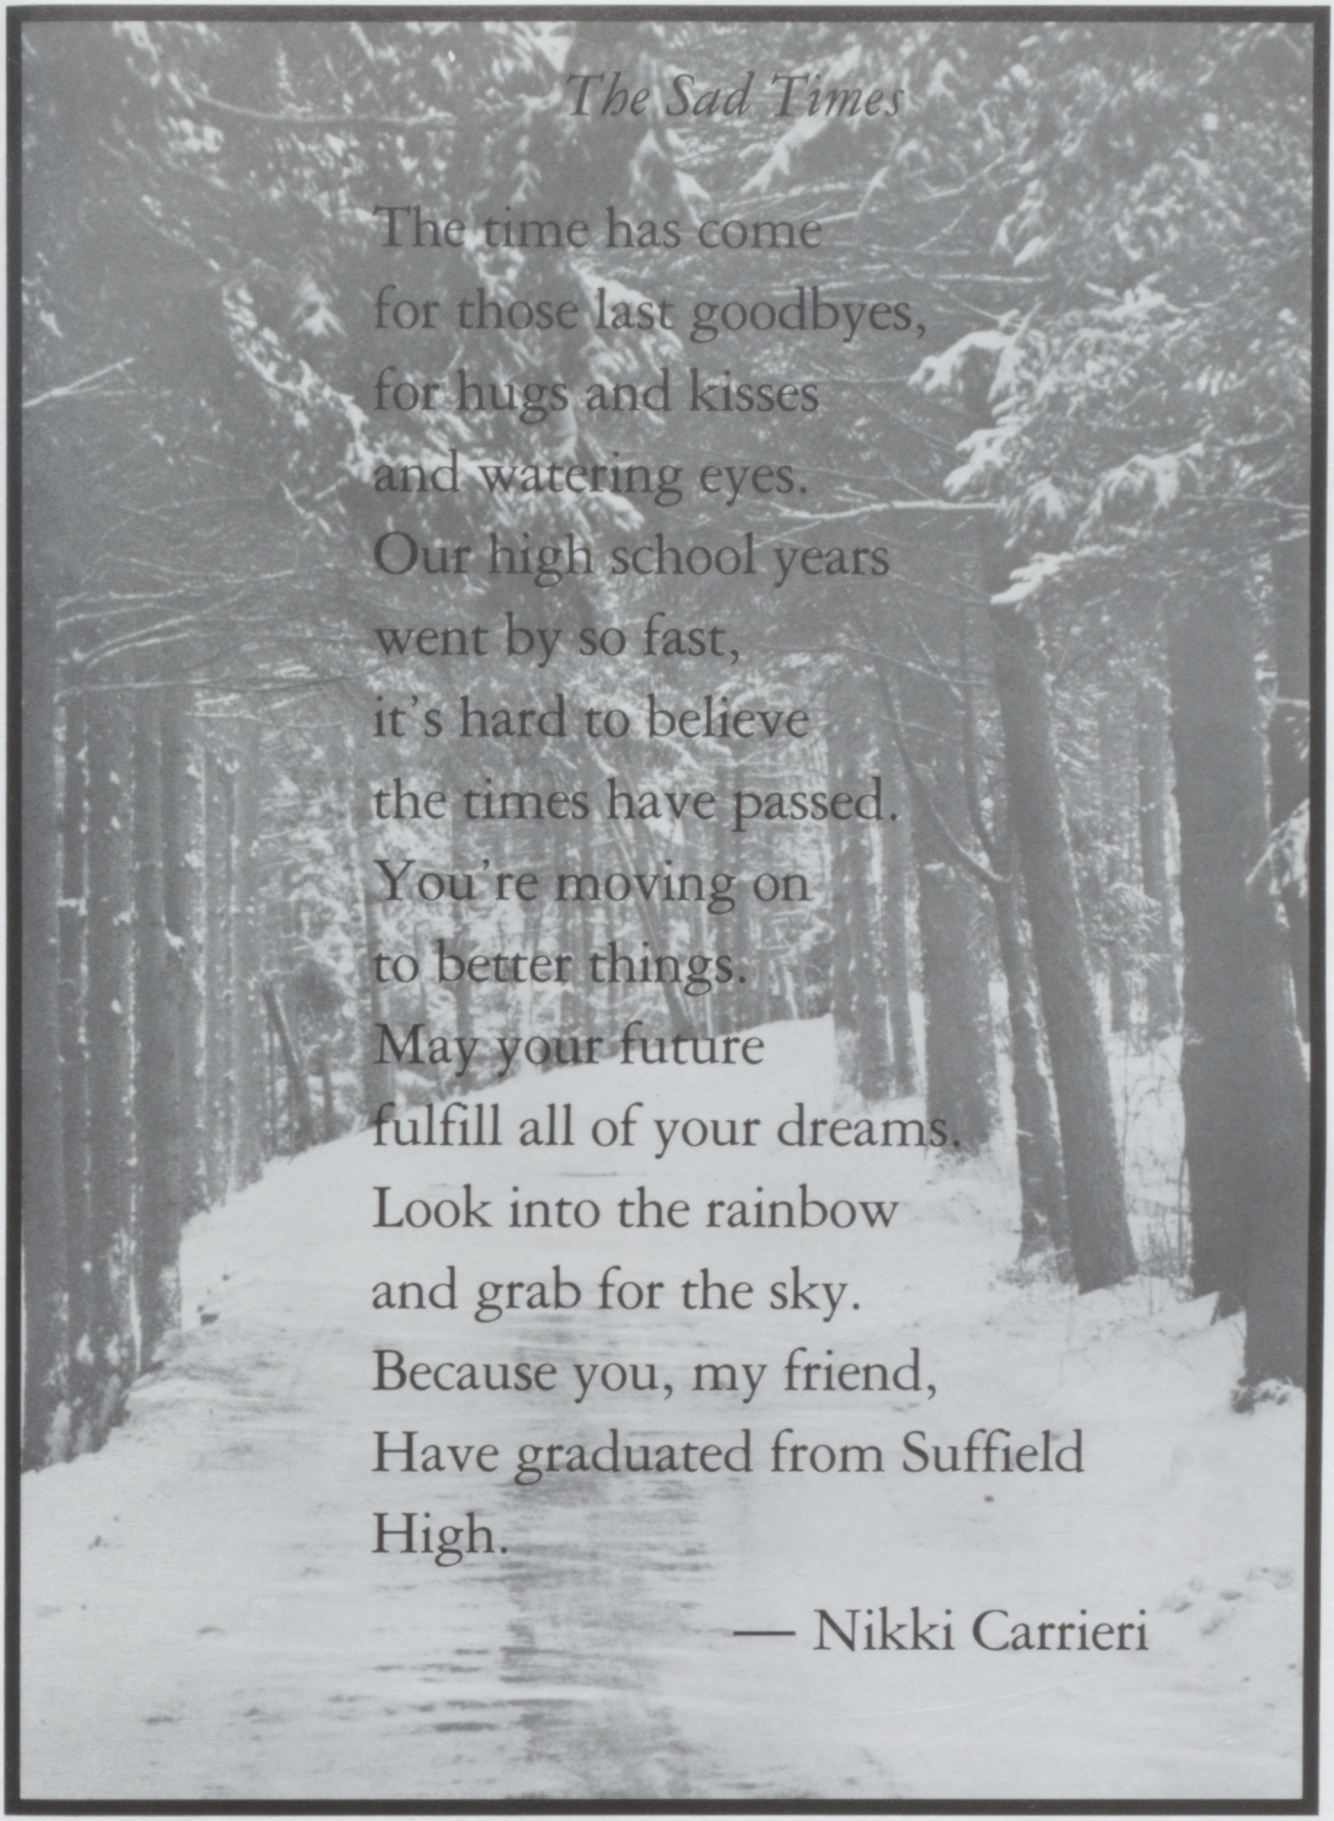

AND THE MEMORIES OF WHERE OUR ROOTS LIE.

SAGITTA STAFF

We, the members of the Sagitta staff, wish to express our gratitude to the people who made this yearbook possible. Without Mrs. Eileen Kinney, our advisor, Mr. Denny Galvin of Taylor Publishing Company, Mr. Richard Chaisson and Mr. Robert Zemba of Steven's Photography, Mr. Horace J. Sikes, who made our class picture possible, and all of the people who gave pictures and provided financial support, the 1986 Sagitta would not be the successful yearbook that it is. Thank you for your time and effort.

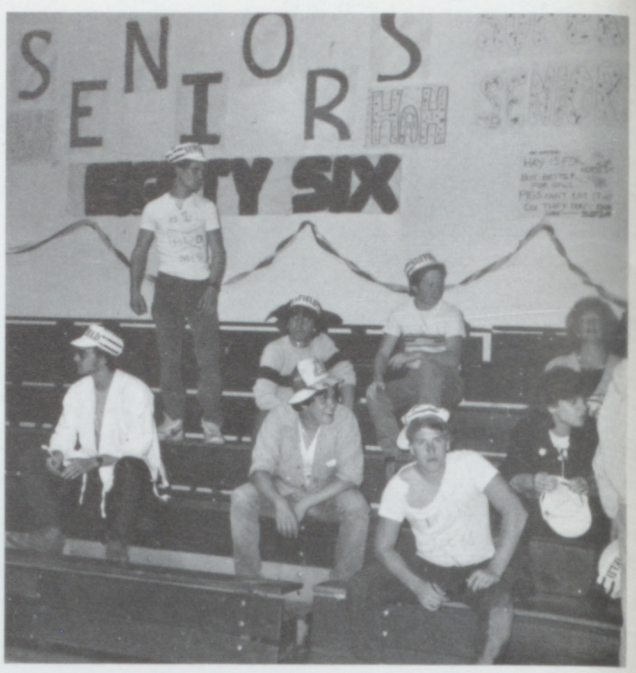

The Sad Times

The time has come
for those last goodbyes,
for hugs and kisses
and watering eyes.
Our high school years
went by so fast,
it's hard to believe
the times have passed.
You're moving on to better things.
May your future
fulfill all of your dreams.
Look into the rainbow
and grab for the sky.
Because you, my friend,
Have graduated from Suffield
High.

Find A Leaking Ship

Many a foundering ship could be rescued by your ideas and energy.
A failing business,
a scout troop,
a church choir,
a public school,
or a city council.
Plenty of struggling organizations are salvageable if they get the right kind of help.
Remember:
America went from its greatest naval loss
(Pearl Harbor)
to its greatest naval victory
(Midway) in just six months.
So plug up
the leaks,
trim the sails
and get going.
Your effort can make a difference.
